

ISRRT
INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF RADIOGRAPHERS
& RADIOLOGICAL
TECHNOLOGISTS

Practical Arrangements on Cooperation Activities between

International Society of Radiographers and Radiological Technologists (ISRRT)

And

International Radiation Protection Association (IRPA)

WHEREAS the aim of ISRRT, as a non-profit organization to advance the science and practice of radiography and allied subjects by the promotion of improved standards of education and of research in the technical aspects of radiation medicine and radiation protection. To make the results of research and experience in radiation medicine and radiation protection available to practitioners throughout the world.

WHEREAS the aim of IRPA, as an independent non-profit organization, is to promote excellence in national and regional associate societies and in radiation protection professionals by providing support, guidance, benchmarks of good practice, exchange of information, and by facilitating networking to ensure that the highest standards of professional conduct, skills and knowledge are applied for the benefit of society;

WHEREAS ISRRT and IRPA believe that whilst each has its specific contributions to the use of radiation protection, cooperation between the two organizations in areas of common interest will contribute to the overall joint goal of the safe use of radiation without compromising on quality ;and facilitate the safe application of radiological practices.

NOW, therefore, the two organizations hereby agree as follows:

1. Purpose of this collaboration.

- to recognize that both organizations can complement each other in promoting the safe use of radiation,
- to enhance the cooperation between both organizations in promoting high standards and ethics in radiation protection.

2. Cooperation activities:

The two organizations will:

- organize joint events or sessions in the safe use of radiation
- provide each other the link to ISRRT and IRPA website on their own webpage

Practical arrangements on cooperation activities between ISRRT and IRPA

- inform on and possibly invite a designated representative of the other organization to participate in respective events and venues
- send an official letter of invitation for attendance of meetings.

Any collaborative activity as outlined in this article shall be subject to the availability of sufficient financial and human resources for that purpose, as well as each Party's program of work, priorities, regulations and policies. Invitation of representatives to meetings shall be at no cost to the inviting organization unless specifically agreed.

3. Termination.

This agreement may be terminated by either Party, subject to six months advance written notice to the other Party.

Signed

Dr. Fozy Peer
(President: ISRRT)
on 29 February 2016.

Renate Czarwinski
(President: IRPA)
25.04.2016